

Name: Stacey Schrader

Home: Elgin, Illinois

Tractor: 1950 John Deere A

Other interests and hobbies: Has a large John Deere toy tractor collection.

Who was the most influential in your interest in tractors: Grew up on a farm on Army Trail Road in Bartlett. It was mostly a crop farm with some animals.

Elmer Hecht was also influential in his interest in John Deere tractors. He used to drive the 1950 A for Elmer annually in the Bartlett 4th of July Parade. After Elmer passed away, Stacey was able to purchase the very tractor that Elmer asked him to drive in the parade.

Stacey still helps a friend farm in Hampshire.

What is your favorite food? Stacey likes all food and couldn't think of one favorite type of food.

Stacey can be found attending several parades and tractor shows during the season. He enjoys attending the annual NEITCC Club dinner and many other events in the area. The next time you see Stacey at an event please stop by and say hello now that you know a little more about his background.
